Dining Services Convenience Plans/Dining Bucks

Dining Bucks allows students to purchase food at any of the University's restaurants and Conte Forum concession stands, as well as items from campus vending machines and pizza from an off-campus vendor. To purchase Dining Bucks log on to the Web at <http://agora.bc.edu> (secure site). There is a $100 minimum deposit.

Eagle Number

Your Eagle Number is the last 8-digits to the left of your picture on the Eagle-One Card. Keep your Eagle Number easily accessible since it allows you to access your records on U-View, and it is often requested by the University as a form of identification.

E-Mail

E-Mail accounts are automatically created for all full-time undergraduates. Log on to U-View and type M, the option to request or view your E-Mail address. Press return. Your full address will appear at the bottom of the U-View screen.

Graduate students should log on to U-View and choose the option to request an E-Mail account. U-View access is available in the Student Learning and Support Center in O'Neill Library. An account will be created for you in approximately 24 hours. E-Mail accounts are valid as long as you are registered with an extension until August 1 of the year you graduate.

One-stop Shopping Student Services, Lyons Hall

The staff of Service Associates in Lyons Hall can assist you with questions concerning academic and financial services. Students may contact the Office of Student Services at 1-800-294-0294 or 617-552-3300. The fax number is 617-552-4889. Student Services, Lyons Hall

- Obtain Financial Aid Applications
- Obtain/replace IDs
- Obtain parking stickers, if eligible
- Pay tuition and fees
- Request enrollment certifications
- Resolve loan questions
- Resolve questions regarding registration, financial aid and student accounts

Grades by Phone

Dial 617-552-8801 to access your grades by phone. The system is available from 8:00 A.M. to 11:00 P.M. Have your Eagle Number and Personal Identification Number (PIN) ready and follow the voice prompts. The system will speak your grades for the last term. The grades will only be read once so have a pencil ready.

Eagle-One Cards

Eagle-One cards are required for use of the library facilities, Dining Services Convenience Plans, and as student identification at athletic facilities and events. New or returning students who need Eagle-One cards can come to Student Services, Lyons Hall, to obtain an Eagle-One card or request a replacement ID at <http://agora.bc.edu>. A fee of $20 will be applied to your student account.

Parking Permits

All faculty, staff and students who park vehicles on the Boston College campus are required to obtain a parking permit. To obtain a permit complete and return the parking application. The $85 fee ($45 half-year) will be billed to your student account.

The number of parking spaces for resident students is limited. They are prioritized for resident seniors and, if space is available, for juniors who are involved in University-sponsored field practica and three-credit internships to fulfill degree requirements, and for students who are employed by the University or represent the University in capacities that require a vehicle. All such requests must be directed to the designated University official.

Service Area

To process an override for a closed or restricted course, to obtain a letter of certification, or to resolve general registration problems, including financial and immunization holds, go to Lyons Hall, Monday-Friday from 9:00 A.M. until 4:30 P.M.

The Service Area staff can also assist you with parking, Convenience Bucks, or Eagle-One Card questions as well. Call 617-552-3300 or E-Mail: studentservices@bc.edu if you have questions.

Transcript Office

Academic and financial aid transcript requests may be submitted in writing to the following address: Transcript Requests, Office of Student Services, Lyons Hall, Boston College, Chestnut Hill, MA 02467 or faxed to 617-552-4975. Requests are usually processed within 48-72 hours of receipt. Students may also complete a transcript request form available in Lyons foyer. The Transcript Office is open Monday-Friday from 8:45 A.M. until 4:45 P.M. There is no charge for a transcript.

Registration Preparation

Graduate Students

The spring 2000 on-line registration and drop/add period for all graduate students will begin on November 12 and continue through January 24. Graduate students in GSA&S, CGSOM, GSOE, GSON, and GSSW who register before December 15, 1999 will have their registration fee waived. This waiver only applies to those students who complete their registration by December 15. Students who add courses after December 15 will be charged the $15 registration fee.

Students registered for Doctoral Continuation in the fall will be registered for the spring unless they graduate in December or are enrolled in programs that require departmental permission. Those students whose departments require permission need to obtain a departmental override. Graduate students using School of Education teaching vouchers should see Patricia O'Kane in the Office of the Assistant Dean for Students and Outreach.

Special Students who have not applied to a degree program or who have applied but have not yet been accepted and wish to take graduate level courses must apply as special students to the appropriate graduate school. This policy also applies to students who wish to take graduate level courses using teaching vouchers and have not applied or been accepted into a graduate school at Boston College. Those who have previously taken courses using vouchers should contact the Admission Offices to be readmitted.

Undergraduate Students

The spring 2000 registration and drop/add period for undergraduates will begin on November 15 and will continue through January 24. CSOM students in the classes of 2000 and 2001 and Arts and Sciences students in the class of 2000 will receive their registration materials in the mail during the week of October 18. All other undergraduates must pick up their Registration Information/Degree audit forms from their advisors beginning October 25. Registration Procedures Graduate and undergraduate students register and drop/add using either the U-View Plus system—available from any computer terminal or microcomputer with a network (EagleNet) connection or with a dialup (modem) connection to BC's administrative mainframe computer—or the U-Dial voice-response system. U-Dial can be accessed from a touch-tone telephone by dialing 617-552-8800. Instructions for accessing U-View Plus are posted in the terminal carrels in O'Neill 248 and in the Student Learning and Support Center in O'Neill 250.

The registration systems will be available seven days a week (with exceptions) until 11:00 P.M. through January 24. All students may drop/add any time after they have registered. Drop/adds after January 24 must be approved by the appropriate department/Dean's Office.

Registration Information

Advising

Students can check their records on U-View for their advisor's name. U-View machines are located in Lyons basement, O'Neill Library, McGuinn lobby, Lower Campus Dining hall or McElroy. CSOM students should reference: <http://www.bc.edu/csomadvice.html> before registering for courses.

Course Descriptions

Access the Office of Student Services' Web site for course descriptions at the following address: <http://www.bc.edu/courses>. Use the Schedule of Courses on the Web to determine the index and section numbers, and the meeting time of each course. You may also browse courses on U-View Plus by using the "C" option, which will access both fall and spring semester courses, or search for courses by instructor name, by course title, and by open courses (not closed or canceled).

Course Restrictions/Closed Courses An asterisk (*) next to a course indicates a restriction. The specific restriction is printed underneath the course. Courses may be restricted by school (e.g., For Education Only), by degree (e.g., For Doctoral Students Only), or by major (e.g., For Economics Majors Only). Other courses, or sections of courses, may be held by the department so that they are unavailable during certain periods of registration. Some courses (including all graduate courses) may be available to undergraduates with department permission only.

Note: If you are planning to change your major, be sure to check the General Information section for instructions.

Overrides

In exceptional cases, a department may decide to override a course restriction. If you wish to obtain an override for a course that was closed or restricted when you registered, see the department. If the department chairperson or assistant decides to allow you to register for the course, he or she will give you an Approval/Override form. The form must be stamped in the appropriate section: Open/Restricted - overrides school, major, degree and department restrictions; Override - for a Closed Course overrides all restrictions and size limits for closed courses.

In rare cases you may need to obtain permission to override a corequisite or to register for two courses that conflict in time. In those cases the Approval for Time Conflict must be signed. If you obtain an override for a restricted or closed course take the form to Lyons Hall after you have registered. You cannot process overrides through U-Dial or U-View Plus. Students in A&S, CSOM, and SON, who maintain a 3.00 GPA, may add a sixth course on-line (up to 20 credits) during the first week of classes.

Registration Holds

If you have an outstanding balance on your student account, are missing a transcript from a university you attended previously, or have failed to submit proof of immunization to the Health Services Office, a hold may be placed on your registration. If a registration hold message appears on the screen, you must see the appropriate office to resolve the situation before you can register.

Immunization Requirement

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts requires that all full-time college students show proof of immunization against measles (2 doses), mumps, rubella & tetanus-diphtheria. If you have not submitted the Immunization Verification Form you must do so before registering or a "hold" will be placed on your registration.

Students who fail to provide proof of immunization by January 30, 2000 will be charged a $50.00 administrative processing fee, which will be reflected on their February bill. Immunization Verification Forms may be downloaded from the Health Services web site at http://www.bc.edu/bc_org/svp/uhs/immuform.html or obtained at Health Services in Cushing Hall Rm. 119.

Massachusetts Medical Insurance

Commonwealth of Massachusetts Law has mandated that all students, graduate and undergraduate, taking at least 75 percent of full-time credit hours must be covered by medical insurance providing a specified minimum coverage. Determination of whether or not a graduate student is required to enroll in the insurance program is based strictly on the actual number of credits for which the student is registered each semester.

Graduate students in the Schools of Social Work, Management, and Advancing Studies who register for 9 or more credits are considered 75 percent of full-time. Graduate students in the Schools of Arts and Sciences, Nursing and Education who register for 7 or more credits are considered 75 percent of full-time.

Boston College will offer all students—graduate and undergraduate—the option of participating in the plan offered at the University or submitting a waiver. The details of the University’s Insurance plan are available on the U-View system or on the Web at <http://agora.bc.edu>.

Students may waive the BC insurance plan by completing the electronic waiver form on U-View or on the Web. Students under the age of 18 are required to submit a written waiver form with the signature of their parent/guardian. This form is available for download on the Web at <http://www.bc.edu/studentsservices>. The waiver must be completed and submitted by February 11, 2000, for spring semester.

Students who do not complete a waiver by the due dates will be enrolled and billed for the BC plan. Students registering for less than 75 percent of a full-time course load who wish to enroll in the insurance plan must be in a degree-granting program. Such students enroll directly with the insurance company using the part-time enrollment form available at the Boston College Health Services department in Cushing Hall, at Walter W. Sussenguth and Associates or on the Web.

The coverage becomes effective upon receipt of the application and payment by the insurer if received after the due dates above. Note: For insurance purposes students registered for 0 credits (e.g., Doctoral Continuation, Interim Study) are considered part-time and must enroll directly with the insurance company. If you have questions concerning student enrollment, waivers or billing contact the Office of Student Services at 617-552-3300.

Billing Information

Tuition and fees for undergraduates are due by December 15. Restrictions will be placed on any account not resolved by the due dates. These restrictions include denied access to Housing and the Athletic Complex, use of the Meal Plan, and the ability to drop and add courses and to cash checks at the Cashier’s Office. In severe cases, students will be withdrawn from the University. In addition, a $100 late payment fee will be assessed on any account that is not resolved by the due dates.

There will be absolutely no registration or confirmation of registration allowed after April 3, 2000. Scholarship holders are not exempt from payment of registration, acceptance fees, insurance and miscellaneous fees at the time prescribed.

Tuition and fees for the Graduate Schools of Management, Arts and Sciences, Education, Nursing, and Social Work are billed on December 15. Payment is due on January 15. All students should be registered by December 15. The tuition in the Law School is due by December 15.

Visa and Mastercard are accepted for payment of tuition and fees.

The automated payment system may be reached by calling 800-324-2297 or 617-552-0700. This system is available seven (7) days a week excluding holidays from 8:30 A.M. to 11:00 P.M. (EST) Please note: If a student is entitled to a refund due to withdrawal or overpayment and his/her account was paid by a credit card, a credit to that card will be made in lieu of a refund check. Questions regarding billing and payment should be directed to the Office of Student Services, Lyons 101 at 617-552-3300 or 800-294-0294.

General Information

Course Exceptions

Audits and Credit Variations apply to graduate students only.

Audits

Students in the Graduate Schools of Arts and Sciences and Nursing may add an audit on-line (U-View Plus or U-Dial). Graduate School of Education students must see their Dean and complete a Graduate Course Exception form. Students in the School of Social Work should contact Jill Wesley regarding audits. Graduate School of Management students may not audit a course. If you drop the audit before January 24, you will receive 100% refund. You may not drop an audit after January 24. After January 24, go to the Associate Dean’s office and complete a Graduate Course Exception form to change a course from audit to credit or credit to audit. There is no cancellation of tuition for a course changed from credit to audit. Credit

Variation

If you need to change the number of credits for a course pick up a Graduate Credit Variation form from the Office of Student Services. Have the form approved by the Associate Dean’s Office and return it to Lyons Hall by January 24. After January 24, bring the form to the Office of Student Services and pay for the additional credits.

Pass/Fail

Sophomores, juniors and seniors may enroll in a non-major or non-Core course on a Pass/Fail basis or remove a Pass/Fail designation on-line through January 24. NB: Carroll School of Management courses may not be taken Pass/Fail by any student. To declare a course Pass/Fail in the Graduate School of Social Work, contact Jill Wesley at 617-552-4020 by January 31. Graduate School of Nursing students take NU 901 and NU 902 Pass/Fail. IREPM students should contact Donna Derosa for Pass/Fail information. Students in GSAS, CGSOM and GSOE may not take courses Pass/Fail.

Withdrawing from a Course or from the University

The last day to withdraw from a fall course with a W or to withdraw from the University is November 29. For the spring 2000 semester any course dropped after January 24 will be recorded as a withdrawal. The last day to withdraw from a spring course with a W or to withdraw from the University is April 14. Students will not be permitted to drop courses during the last two weeks of classes or during the exam period. Students are still registered at this point and will receive a final grade for the course. To withdraw from a course or from the University see your Dean.

Cross Registration/Consortium

Graduate students may cross register for one course each semester at Boston University, Brandeis and Tufts. M.B.A. students are not permitted to register at Brandeis and students in the Graduate Finance program are not allowed to cross register at any of the universities. Undergraduate students (except freshmen) may cross register at Boston University, Brandeis, Hebrew College, Pine Manor, Regis and Tufts. To cross register follow the procedures below:

- Obtain the Cross Registration form in Lyons Hall
- Obtain authorization from your Dean
- Have the form signed by the host institution
- Return the form to Lyons Hall by January 24

You will not receive credit for the class without returning the signed Cross Registration form.

Women’s Consortium

The Graduate Consortium in Women’s Studies at Radcliffe is an inter-institutional enterprise established to advance the field of women’s studies and enlarge the scope of graduate education through new models of team teaching and interdisciplinary study. Faculty and students are drawn from six member schools: Boston College, Brandeis, Harvard, Northeastern, MIT, and Tufts. Graduate students enrolled in degree programs at Boston College may take GCWS seminars with department permission and should follow the cross registration procedures described under the Consortium.

Boston Theological Institute

Students who want to cross register through the Boston Theological Institute (BTI) should pick up a cross registration petition in Lyons Hall and return it with the appropriate authorization by January 24. Theology majors may take up to half of their courses through BTI. Students are expected to consult with their advisors or department chairpersons before cross registering. For further information call 617-552-3300 or Maggie Galvin in the Theology Department at 617-552-8491.

The following colleges and universities participate in the BTI cross registration program.

- Andover Newton School of Theology
- Boston University School of Theology
- Episcopal Divinity School
- Gordon-Conwell School of Theology o Harvard Divinity School
- Holy Cross College (Greek Theology School)
- St. John’s Seminary
- Weston School of Theology

College of Advancing Studies

Each semester limited numbers of seats in College of Advancing Studies (CAS) courses are made available to full time undergraduates. A list of available courses will be posted in Lyons Hall. All students are limited to one CAS course each semester. Students in the College of Arts and Sciences may not take courses on Saturday. Freshman may not enroll in any CAS course.

Before selecting a course, take note of the course restrictions posted on the list. CAS courses can be used to fulfill elective requirements. Check with the appropriate department if you intend to use a CAS course to fulfill a Core or major requirement. Descriptions for College of Advancing Studies courses are available in Lyons Hall. Requesting

Advisor Changes

Students in the College of Arts and Sciences who want to request a change of advisor may obtain the forms in the Associate Dean’s Office, Gasson 109. The request must be made during the first five weeks of the semester. Students in SOE, CSOM, and SON should contact their Associate Dean’s Offices to request an advisor change.

Dropping, Adding or Changing a Major

If you want to drop, add or change a Biology, English, Mathematics, Romance Languages and Literatures, Sociology or Theatre major, please see the department chairperson. For all other majors go to Lyons Hall. Internal TransferStudents who wish to transfer internally (e.g., from Arts and Sciences to Management) must first pick up the application form in the Dean’s Office during the registration period (beginning November 15). Forms should be returned to the Dean’s Office by November 30. The Dean will review the application and then notify the student and the Office of Student Services.

Graduation Information

Boston College has three graduation dates—December 30, August 30, and May (date varies yearly). If you believe that you have completed all your degree requirements as of the end of the previous semester and should have graduated, please contact the appropriate person.

- A&S: Angie DiPietro, 617-552-4974
- CSOM, CGSOM, SOE, CAS, GCAS, SON, GSON: Susan White, 617-552-3305o
- GSA&S, GSOE, LAW, GSSW: Maureen Maloney, 617-552-4979

Mailing Address Update

Undergraduate and graduate students can change their local, home or parents’ addresses and telephone numbers on U-View Plus. To update your address (es) go to the Student Learning and Support Center or log-on to U-View Plus via modem or an EagleNet connection. Students may also change an address by writing to the Office of Student Services. If you do not update your address you may not receive Boston College mailings, registration information, or your grades. The Dean of Students needs your local address in case of emergencies.

Because of the increasing number of students who need to have grades sent to more than one address, a second address file for grades has been established. To have grades mailed to more than one address, please notify Student Services by mail or in person. The request must include name, Eagle Number, school, second address, and signature. Your name and second address will be placed on file and grades mailed to both your home and second address each semester until you graduate.

Certificate of Enrollment

The National Student Loan Clearinghouse will process deferment forms after January 25, 2000 in accordance with Federal regulations. If you need an enrollment certification for deferment of a student loan, mail or fax the forms to the following address: Office of Student Services, Lyons Hall, Chestnut Hill, MA 02467 or stop by Lyons Hall. Your deferment form will be forwarded to the National Student Loan Clearinghouse.

If you register for Interim Study, Thesis Direction, Doctoral Continuation, Doctoral Comprehensives, a full-time Student Teaching Practica or Internship, you are considered a full-time student. If you are a Graduate Assistant for an academic department, a Teaching Assistant, Teaching Fellow, Research Assistant, or University Fellow, you may be considered full-time with less than the normal full-time credit load. This full-time category applies only to loans and is not considered full-time status for automatic medical insurance enrollment. Students in this category are to fill out a part-time medical insurance form. You must be registered to be certified. If you withdraw from courses at any point during the semester your certification status will change and this change will be reported to your guaranty agency by the Clearinghouse.

Enrollment Status Requirements

Full-time

- All Undergraduates—12 or more credits
- CAS—12 or more credits
- CGSOM, GSSW, LAW—12 or more credits
- GSA&S GSOE, GSON—9 or more credits

Half-time

- All graduate schools—6 or more credits

Voting Affidavits

Students living in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts who want to register to vote may pick up Affidavits of Voter Registration in the foyer of Lyons. Complete the form and return it to the Office of Student Services. It will then be forwarded to the Registrar in your city or town.

Student Right to Information

Campus Safety and Security Program

In compliance with the Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act, Boston College publishes the Campus Safety and Security Program, an annual report containing the University’s campus safety and security policies and crime statistics. Upon request, this report is available to any prospective student. It may be obtained, along with other information the University is required to make available under the Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act, from the Office of Undergraduate Admission at 617-552-3100 or by writing to Boston College, Office of Undergraduate Admission, Devlin Hall 208, 140 Commonwealth Avenue, Chestnut Hill, MA 02467-3809.

Enrollment Statistics and Graduation Rate

During the fall of 1998, Boston College enrolled 8,925 undergraduates, 931 College of Advancing Studies students and 4,840 graduate students. Of freshmen who first enrolled at Boston College in the fall of 1992, 85.5% percent had completed their degree by 1998 and 4.1% had chosen to continue their studies elsewhere. The combined retention rate for this entering class is 90%. Of the graduates, 95% earned their degrees within four years.

Equity in Athletics

Students, prospective students, and the public may upon request to the Controller’s Office obtain a copy of the annual report of Boston College’s participation rates, financial support, and other information on men’s and women’s intercollegiate athletic programs.

Confidentiality of Student Records

Certain personally identifiable information from a student’s education record, designated by Boston College as directory information, may be released without the student’s prior consent. This information includes name, term, home and electronic addresses, telephone number, date and place of birth, photograph, major field of study, enrollment status, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, school/college of enrollment, anticipated date of graduation, degrees and awards received, the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended, and other similar information.

Electronic and print (The Source) access to selected directory information is available to members both within (via authenticated access) and outside the Boston College community. A student who so wishes has the absolute right to prevent release of all directory information including verification of enrollment, or of suppressing selected directory information either to the Boston College community or to the general public. In order to do this, students must enter Agora (<http://agora.bc.edu/start>) to suppress the release of all or selected directory information. Suppression is available by selecting U-View and Privacy Preferences. All non-directory information is considered confidential and will not be released to outside inquiries without the express written consent of the student.

Notice of Non-Discrimination

Founded by the Society of Jesus in 1863, Boston College is dedicated to intellectual excellence and to its Jesuit, Catholic mission and heritage. Committed to having a welcoming environment for all people, it recognizes the important contribution a diverse community of students, faculty and administrators makes to the advancement of its goals and ideals.

Boston College rejects and condemns all forms of harassment, and has developed specific procedures to redress incidents of harassment against any members of its community, whatever the basis or circumstance. Moreover, in accordance with all applicable state and federal laws, Boston College does not discriminate in employment, housing or education on the basis of a person’s race, sex, age, national and ethnic origin, religion, disabilities, marital or parental status, veteran status, or personal history. In addition, in a manner faithful to the Jesuit Catholic principles and values that sustain its mission and heritage, Boston College is in compliance with applicable state laws providing equal opportunity without regard to sexual orientation.

Boston College has designated the Director of Affirmative Action to coordinate its efforts to comply with and carry out its responsibilities to prevent discrimination in accordance with state and federal laws. Any applicant for admission or employment, as well as all students, faculty members, and employees are welcome to raise any questions regarding violation of this policy with the Director of Affirmative Action, More Hall 314, (617-552-2947). In addition, any person who believes that an act of discrimination based on Title IX discrimination has occurred at Boston College, may raise this issue with the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights of the United States Department of Education.

Disabled Student Services

Boston College complies with federal regulations prohibiting discrimination on the basis of handicap. Disabled students applying to Boston College are strongly encouraged to make their disability known voluntarily to the Admission Office of the School to which they are applying. This information will not affect the decision on admission; rather, it will give the University the opportunity to offer specific assistance and support through programs and services provided by different departments on campus.

For more information regarding services for students with physical disabilities, contact John P. Hennessey, Coordinator of Disabled Student Services and 504/ADA Compliance Officer, in Gasson Hall 108 (617-552-3310). For more information regarding services for students with learning disabilities, contact Kathleen Duggan, Coordinator of Academic Support Services for Learning Disabled Students, Academic Development Center, O’Neill 200 (617-552-8055).

University Core Requirements

The Core is administered by the University Core Development Committee (UCDC). The following courses comprise the Core curriculum.

Special Programs

The Program for the Study of Faith, Peace and Justice

This program offers students the opportunity to examine and intensify their faith commitments and to explore the significance of these commitments for the task of bringing about just and peaceful solutions to national and international problems. The Program sponsors courses, campus events, and special activities for its participants.

A&S or CSOM students who meet the academic requirements of the Program may minor in Faith, Peace, and Justice Studies. Alternatively, students may choose to concentrate on faith, peace, and justice concerns within their major field. In either case the same pattern applies, (i.e., an introductory course, UN 160 The Challenge of Justice, four intermediate courses taken with the advice and consent of the Director, and finally, UN 590 the Senior Seminar Project).

Campus events include speakers, religious ceremonies, and student-faculty conferences and less formal exchanges on issues of faith, peace, and justice. Special activities for participants of the Program include retreats, service days, lectures, discussions and socials. For further information, please contact Prof. Matthew Mullane, Carney 417, 617-552-3886.

PULSE Program

The PULSE Program provides students with the opportunity to explore questions of philosophy, theology and other disciplines in courses that incorporate field work experience in one of Boston’s many social service organizations. Through the combination of academic reflection and community service, students are provided with a framework for understanding the intimate relationship between theory and practice.

Enrollment in the course Person and Social Responsibility is one of the options for fulfilling the Core requirement in Philosophy and Theology. In light of classic philosophical and theological texts, social science, fiction, and poetry, PULSE students address topics such as the relationship of self and society, the nature of community, the mystery of suffering and the practical difficulties of developing a just society, urbanism, homelessness and alienation. PULSE students are challenged to investigate the insights offered by their readings in relation to their service work. Enrollment in the core level PULSE course is limited to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Spots in the course are very limited and are allocated on a first-come first served basis.

For those students who want to continue their experience with the PULSE program or who were unable to enroll in the Core level class, several elective courses are offered. A philosophy and English course entitled Stories and Service looks at topics such as urbanism, homelessness, and alienation through texts by social scientists, novelists, philosophers, and poets. Other PULSE elective course titles are Values in Social Service and Health Care and Boston: An Urban Analysis.

All PULSE courses require a ten to twelve hour per week commitment to service. Carefully selected field placements in youth work, the correctional system, emergency shelters, AIDS and HIV services, legal and community advocacy, and literacy programs become the context in which students forge a critical and compassionate perspective both on society and on themselves.

University Capstone Courses

Reserved for seniors and second-semester juniors only, the Capstone program is designed to cap off college by facing the questions of life after graduation. The Capstone Seminars (UN 500-525) directly address the hopes and anxieties that seniors face but seldom find treated in traditional courses. They relate the life and learning of the past four years to the life and learning ahead. The Capstone Seminars take seriously the struggle to integrate four crucial areas of life: work, relationships, free time, and the search for the purpose of existence.

Ask some inevitable questions now, not later. How did my education prepare me to live? With everything I want to do, what will I have to compromise? How can I balance my career and my family? Can I find work with a higher meaning than my income?

Special features of the course:

- Faculty from various departments
- Each section limited to 15-20
- Class meetings held in leisurely, informal settings
- Innovative teaching methods, such as keeping a journal, interdisciplinary reading, guest speakers from professional life
- Capstone Seminars satisfy major requirements in certain departments.

To register for a Capstone Seminar

You must be a senior or a second-semester junior to take the course. Different Capstone Seminars will be offered each semester. All Seminars are interdisciplinary: you may register for any one of the Seminars as a University (UN) course. If you find a particular Seminar closed, try to register under the cross-listed number (e.g., if UN 523 is closed, try to register for the class as TH 523, and vice versa). The Seminar can count as an elective for all students. For majors in English, Philosophy, and Theology, it can satisfy the major requirements if the student takes a seminar as cross-listed in the department of his/her major. Students are reminded that several Capstone seminars are cross-listed, both as University courses with a UN number and also as courses in the department of the professor offering the course. In case a course is closed be sure to check whether there is space under its cross-listed number.

Students must also understand the following rule:

NB: No student may take more than one Capstone seminar during his/her undergraduate years. Thus, you may not take two Capstone courses in one semester or in two different semesters. This is true whether the course is listed under a UN number or as course in a specific department. If a second Capstone course appears on your record, it will be removed. This could make you ineligible for graduation.

BK 295 Introduction to African Languages

No doubt African languages are the oldest elements in African cultures. Since time immemorial, they have been the most important system of expression among Africans, the most indigenous and original vehicle for transmitting African thoughts, feelings, songs, beliefs, philosophies and ideologies from one generation to another. The purpose of this course is to survey the current status of African languages in America and Africa, by examining the trend and place of African language studies in the United States and the progress already made in the use of indigenous languages in African education, commerce and mass media. African languages will be categorized and examined according to their functions in Africa: mother tongue languages, community languages (dominant over a wide area of a country), national languages, and languages of African intercommunication (including Swahili, Hausa, etc.) used in several African states and countries.

This course will also discuss aspects of African society, ethnicity and group identity. Students will examine the differences between classifications of ethnic groups in American and Africa. This course is recommended for students interested in African language studies and/or who intend to travel to Africa for business, research, etc. Class instruction will be supplemented by a series of short assignments based upon recommended books and journal articles.

Edwin E. Okafor

BK 306 Introduction to French African Literature

The aim of this course is to acquaint students with the main characteristics and preoccupations of Black African creative writing in French through reading and discussion of carefully selected works of Francophone Black African writers inspired by the doctrine of Negritude and by the memory and experiences of Africa.

The students will read most of the recommended texts privately. The class instruction and discussion will focus on the literary treatment of African cultural heritage, socio-historical experiences and conception of Negritude evoked in the texts and will aim at answering questions such as these: (1) How are African oral tradition and episodes of history reconstituted under the genres of folk literature, historical novel or the dramatic works of Black African writers in French: Birago Diop, Bernard Dadie, etc.? (2) In which way are African features or cultures including music, dance, family life, birth, education, initiation rituals, funeral rites, beliefs, and philosophy evoked in the selected texts of Senghor, Camara Laye, Sissoko, etc.? (3) How is African revolt against colonization and neo-colonization as well as African search for identity depicted in the literary works of David Diop, Ousmane Sembene, Lilyan Keteloot, etc.? (4) What is the evidence that the language and style (including choice of words and imagery) of Negritude literature can be traced to the rhythm of Black African music or to the narrative style of African oral folktales? Conducted in English.

Chemistry

CH 739 NMR in Macromolecular Structure Determination

The course will explore methods in current use for structure determination in macromolecules such as peptides, proteins, paramagnetic complexes, and nucleic acids. The focus of the course will be NMR methods that are currently available to the department, but other methods that are complementary with NMR in structure determination such as X-ray, ESR, and computing methods (energy minimization and molecular dynamics) will be considered. The course is intended for graduate students with a working knowledge of NMR. Case studies (e.g., the lac repressor headpiece of E. coli) will be used to illustrate the methodology and the course will include a practical component in the NMR laboratory tailored to address the specific research interests of the students.

Communications

CO 204 Art and Digital Technology

Cross listed with FS 274

This introductory course will offer students the opportunity to develop their visual imagination and their artistic skills through the use of digital technology. Adobe Photoshop and preliminary work with Illustrator will offer the principles of composition and two-dimensional design. Computer-aided drawing and design, as well as photo imaging, will be an integral part of the course. The various skills of graphic expression learned in the course will have an Internet application.

Karl Baden

CO 251 Gender and Media

This course is an elective that covers the representation of women and men, masculinity and femininity in the mass media over the past two decades. Particular focus will be given to television and film. The course materials will include readings as well as regular video and tv clips. Grades will be based on a mid-term, final exam, short papers and participation.

Lisa Cuklanz

CO 259 Cyberlaw

This course will study the extension of communication law to the Internet, assess a range of pending proposals for new laws designed to regulate free speech in cyberspace, and discuss a variety of national and international schemes intended to govern the developing global information infrastructure. In the process, the course will consider issues involving anonymous speech and reading, commercial speech and spam, content filters, copyright and intellectual property, defamation, encryption, hate speech, political speech, privacy, and sexually-explicit speech.

The Department

Economics

EC 235.01 Economics and Values

Prerequisites: EC131-132

This course will be an economic and moral analysis of major policy issues in the United States economy. Emphasis will be placed on major issues in the 2000 presidential campaign, such as estate taxes, patients' rights and the funding of health insurance, welfare, school vouchers, and the growing inequality in the distribution of income.

The Department

EC 315 Numerical Methods and Scientific Computation

Cross listed with PH 430

Prerequisites: MT 202, and one of PH 330, MT 330, CH 330, EC 314, plus permission of instructor

This course is intended for students who plan to minor in Scientific Computation. It is also an elective for Physics majors.

This course introduces students to a variety of numerical methods and then applies these methods to solve a broad range of scientific problems. These problems include examples from physics as well as several other disciplines, including chemistry, mathematics, economics, and finance. Numerical techniques for solving problems expressed in terms of matrix, differential and integral equations will be developed. Other topics will include statistical sampling and Fourier and Laplace transforms. The course material and presentation will accommodate a range of scientific backgrounds.

David Broido (Physics)

Jan Engelbrecht (Physics)

EC 331Distributive Justice

Prerequisite: EC 201

The course will analyze modern analysis of justice and fairness. We will discuss bargaining situations and social choice questions. Part of the course will be devoted to the recent experimental literature regarding fairness.

Uzi Segal

EC 369 International Banking

Prerequisites: EC 201 and EC 202

This course will provide students with a framework for analysis, important institutional detail, and a familiarity with recent events. After a brief review of some basic concepts related to financial markets and international finance, we will discuss the increasing globalization of financial markets and banking institutions. The course will include a cross-country comparison of banking systems in the context of the universal banking debate and a discussion of the regulation and supervision of internationally active banks. We will discuss the activities of internationally active banks and the risks they face, as well as recent banking crises. The course will have a significant writing component.

Joe Peek

EC 391 Transportation Economics

Prerequisites: EC 201 or EC 203

This course applies the basic techniques of microeconomic analysis to the transportation industry. Both the institutional framework and public policy issues of freight and passenger transportation are examined. Topics to be covered include (1) pricing policies (2) regulatory reform, and (3) public provision of transportation infrastructure.

EN08001 Literary Forms

Reading, discussing, and writing about two major forms that shape literary expression-poetry and drama-and about the interplay of these forms. We will study poems by canonical writers like Donne, Keats, Hopkins, Dickinson, Yeats, and Eliot, and the work of more recent poets like Langston Hughes, Frost, Wallace Stevens, Elizabeth Bishop, Seamus Heaney, Rita Dove, and Louise Gluck. The class will also study plays by Sophocles, Shakespeare, Ibsen, Miller, Marsha Norman, and Brian Friel, and present scenes from the plays as a way of getting closer to the dramatist's art. There will be regular writing assignments and class presentations throughout the semester.

John Mahoney

EN08003 Literary Forms

The "forms" in the title of the course refers immediately to the types of literary genres in the text: drama, fiction poetry. While the authors choose a certain form as the best mode for their though and imaginative expression, you, the reader, impose a kind of internal form on what you read. The class will explore some of these approaches, hopefully connecting author and reader, poem or story and the private/public world of the reader. Paul Messer, S. J. EN08004 Literary Forms John Anderson EN08101 Literary Themes Katherine Howard EN08102 Literary Themes: Working and Slacking in Literature In this course we will read a variety of texts that take for their subject "work" or "labor," depicting it as oppressive, alienating or fulfilling; as a sort of sub-theme, the class will consider the mythology of the American Dream, by looking at protagonists who work hard, and those who prefer not to. We'll read cultural critique by Veblen, Marx and Weber, and also consider the nature of reading itself, as both work and play. Potential authors and texts include Hamlet, Charles Dickens, Horatio Alger, Anzia Yeziarska, Booker T. Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Louisa May Alcott, Herman Melville, J. D. Salinger, and Douglas Coupland (Generation X). The course will also include a couple of films-possibilities include Slackers, Roger and Me, and Easy Rider. Evaluation will stem from regularly scheduled quizzes and short writing responses, a longer paper, and a final exam. Regular attendance will be mandatory. Matthew Bolinder EN08103 Literary Themes This course will examine significant works in the light of three themes: paying a price for love, grappling with mortality, seeking the divine. Students will read Cather, O Pioneers! Narcissus and Goldmund; Shakespeare, Romeo and Juliet; poetry by John Donne, Andre Marvell, Emily Dickinson, Robert Frost, William Butler Yeats, Elizabeth Barret Browning; short stories by Kate Chopin, Gloria Naylor, John Updike and others. Fr. Robert Farrell, S. J. EN08104 Literary Themes The theme explored this semester is the heroic quest. We will examine the quest in works of literature, including Lowry's The Giver, Malamud's The Natural, Miller's The Crucible, Faulkner's "Barn Burning," King's "The Body." We will also explore the heroic quest in several films. Bonnie Rudner EN08105 Literary Themes When is a trip not just a trip? In this course, we will embark on a study of journeys in literature that lead to revelations and self-discovery for the characters as well as ourselves. Texts may include works by Art Spiegelman, Shakespeare, and Samuel Beckett, among others. Karen Corr EN08106 Literary Themes: Visions of Guilt and Innocence In this course we will explore the themes of guilt and innocence in works of many periods-from the ancient Greeks to the contemporary-and across genres: fiction, plays and poetry. We will explore how writers, and characters, define or imply moral standings and actions, and examine the consequences when certain characters betray those standings. Throughout the semester, then, we will consider concepts of responsibility, culpability, faithfulness and betrayal. We will also consider standards of guilt and circumstance and the reliability of the teller of the tale. Eileen Donovan-Kranz EN08201 Literature and Society: Love and Memory This course will explore constructions of love as part of the interplay between men, women and money within the context of several different urban-mercantile-pre-capitalist and capitalist societies. Narrative strategies, aesthetic-literary concerns and political-economic theories that affect the texts will be examined in-depth. Proposed readings: Flaubert, Madame	Bovary; Fitzgerald, The Great Gatsby; Warren, All the King's Men; Emecheta, The Joys of Motherhood; Dreiser, Sister Carrie; and Carver, Where I'm Calling From. George O'Har EN082.02 Literature and Society: Crime and Literature This course will examine literary criminals-their signs, exploits, reformations and retributions. During the semester, we will study selections from the Old Testament, The Godfather, Samuel Coleridge, The Autobiography of Malcolm X, Othello and Hamlet. Andrea DeFusco EN08203 Literature and Society The millenium is upon us, and in this course we will deal with the social, political and moral fervor of this event by looking at literature that deals with humanity's response to advances in science and technology. We'll look at some selected non-fiction and poetry, but our main texts will be the following: Mary Shelley's Frankenstein, H. G. Wells' The Time Machine, R. L. Stevenson's The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr Hyde, Arthur C. Clarke's 2001: A Space Odyssey, Octavia Butler's Kindred, and Andrea Barrett's Ship Fever and Other Stories. In addition, we'll study two films as central texts: Ridley Scott's masterful and complex sci-fi classic, "Blade runner", and Charlie Chaplin's comedic critique of man vs. machine, "Modern Times". Course requirements include four short papers, a midterm, final and group project, as well as regular attendance and participation. Susan Roberts EN08205,06 Literature and Society Margherita Cappelli EN08207 Literature and Society Fictional settings let readers enter the lives of others, internalize the characters' problems and relate directly to the ethcial questions their personalities and situations create. This course features works of great moral power that encourage self-examination and challenge existing assumptions, behavior, and "truths" that have been shaped by cultural experience, social institutions, and ideology. Above all, the essential question is asked: What does it mean to be a human being? Readings include: Kafka, The Metamorphosis; Ibsen, A Doll House and The Wild Duck; Cormier, The Chocolate War; Forster, A Passage to India. Linda Zeltzer EN08301 Literature: Traditions/Countertraditions Sheldon George EN08302,03 Literature: Traditions/Countertraditions This course will focus on intercultural and intrapersonal misunderstandings and stuggles as described in drama, memoir, poetry and (predominately) fiction. Readings will include such works as Deane's Reading in the Dark, Dickinson's Final Harvest, Hwang's M. Butterfly, Kaysen's Girl Interrupted, Moore's The Magician's Wife, Mukherjee's Jasmine, and Power's The Grass Dancer. Hilda Carey EN08304 Literature: Traditions/Countertraditions :Land of the Free What does freedom mean to these two groups of Americans? One roamed free on the land until it was taken from them, while the other was brought to this country to be slaves. How does the loss of freedom affect them and how is this loss reflected in their literature? We will read traditional stories and contemporary ones of Native Americans and African-Americans to understand their culture, their difficulties in America, and their unique literature. Readings will include: some traditional tales of both cultures, short stories, Paula Gunn Allen's Spider Woman's Granddaughters, Silko's Ceremony, slave narratives, Frederick Douglass and Morrison's Beloved. Bonnie Rudner EN08305 Literature:Tradition/Countertradition:America at War:

Peacemakers, Warriors and Enemies Are there two side to every conflict or is it more complex than that? We are often familiar with America's views in her involvement in conflicts but are we also familiar with those labeled as the enemy? Are we aware of the view of the common soldier or only those views voiced by those who speak for the armed forces? And what about the antiwar forces, are they activists or unpatriotic obstructionists? This course will explore many of the conflicts central to the American identity through the fiction and non-fiction which surround the major military actions taken by the U. S. We will explore the many points of view around these actions including that of soldier, civilian, politician and peace activist. We'll begin with the European settlement of North America and move through the World Wars and Vietnam.

Works used in the course will include Fussell's The Norton Book of Modern War, Silko's Ceremony, Houston's Farewell to Manzanar, Robert Olen Butler's Good Scent from a Strange Mountain and excerpts for Deloria's Custer Died for Your Sins, Berrigan's The Lamb's War and Spiegelman's Maus.

Dacia Gentilella

EN08306 Literature: Traditions/Countertraditions: Magical Stories

This course will explore stories filled with magic from a variety of culture. We will read Western, Latino, Native American, African American, and Asian American folk and fairy tales, short stories and novels. The list of longer works will include: Amy Tan's The Hundred Secret Senses, Susan Power's The Grass Dancer, Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon, and Laura Esquivel's Like Water for Chocolate. The focus will be on the use and kinds of magic found in the literature of these cultures.

Dorothy Miller

EN084.08 (GM065.01)Literatures of the World: Playing the Game

This course fulfills the Literature Core requirement but is also open to students who are in the major or minor program of the Department of German Studies. It focuses on a perennial aspect of human life: play. Especially role playing and game playing are the forms of play which can be studied in a number of literary texts all of which were originally written in German but will be read in English translation. The course will offer, by way of introduction, a brief survey of the theories of play developed by philosophers and psychologists of the 20th century. Then, the following texts will be discussed: Heinrich von Kleist: Amphitryon (play); Klaus Mann: Mephisto (novel); Hermann Hesse: The Glass Bead Game (novel); Bertolt Brecht: The Good Person of Szechwan (play); Thomas Mann: Confessions of Felix Krull (novel); Heinrich Boll: Billiards at Half Past Nine (novel).

Bernard Carpenter

HS 080 Modern History: Africa's World II

Corequisite: HS 078

Satisfies History Core Requirement

This course examines modern world history from an African vantage point. This half looks at how, after 1800, Africans were drawn into deeper contact with industrializing Europe, culminating in the European conquest of most of Africa at the end of the nineteenth century. It explores how Africans regained their independence by joining their liberation movements with the global forces of Pan-Islamic, Pan-African, socialist, nationalist, and other movements in Europe, Asia, and the Americas. The final section examines African relations with countries and cultures on other continents during the second half of the twentieth century.

HS 111 Vietnam

Prerequisites: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

This course will explore the history of Vietnam and US involvement, starting with an overview of the French colonial period and continuing through American assistance, engagement, warfare, disengagement and aftermath. The class will use a variety of sources--books, newspapers, videos, music, etc.--to look at the war and its effects on both American and Vietnamese cultures. It will seek to establish relationship between Vietnam War and other American wars as well as situating the war within the context of nationalism, anti-colonialism and Cold War and investigating the lingering effects of the war on American culture and psyche.

Anne Paulet

HS 572 Foreign Relations

Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094.

The course will continue the study of US Foreign Relations begun in History 571, starting at World War II and continuing to the present day. Emphasis will be on continuing themes such, including but not limited to, the role of domestic politics, US visions of itself and its role in the world, the place of the media and changing world conditions.

Anne Paulet

HS 154 History of Modern Japan

Prerequisite: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

Satisfies Cultural Diversity Core Requirement

A survey of modern Japanese history from the 17th century to the present. Major subjects include the legacy of the Tokugawa era, the Meiji Restoration, the rise of ultra nationalism and militarism, World War II, occupation and post-war recovery, as well as Japan's status and problem as an economic superpower.

The Department

HS 156 The Military in 20th-Century Latin America

Prerequisites: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

Saviors or murderers? These are the two extremes that appear when discussing the role of the military in Latin America. For some, the army has been the guarantor of stability in the face of foreign ideologies that sought to radically alter society. By contrast, some maintain it has been a murderous opponent, blocking social change in order to maintain the status quo. In this course, we will assess the accuracy of these views by studying the origins of the institution, the national and international developments responsible for its professionalization, and what ideology, if any, has informed its actions

Leonardo Hernandez

HS 167 Small Worlds: The Formation of Early Medieval Communities

Prerequisites: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

The bonds that connect people to each other are always in flux. Religion, ethnicity, and political ideology have been the strongest ties in modern nation-states, but different factors brought early medieval people together. This course will examine the ways communities in early medieval Europe were imagined, constructed, and dissolved, from royal courts in tenth-century Germany to peasants in Brittany, from Anglo-Saxon aristocrats to Muslim overlords in Spain. Students will learn both about early medieval societies and the manner in which historical circumstances lead to their making and unmaking.

Christine Senecal

HS 178 Cruel and Unusual: The Death Penalty in Western History

Prerequisite: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

Western history is littered with beheadings, burnings, hangings, shootings, electrocutions and other unpleasant methods of execution. This course will examine those methods and explain the role executions have played in the societies in which they have occurred. Focusing on the Anglo-American experience of the death penalty, attention will also be paid to those nations, such as revolutionary France and Nazi Germany, which have made liberal use of capital punishment. The course will conclude by examining abolition in Britain and considering why the United States, alone among Western industrialized nations, retains the death penalty and executes criminals in ever-greater numbers.

Bernard Carpenter

HS 206 Andean History and Society

Prerequisites: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

This course is designed to provide an overview of the evolution of the Andean societies (today Bolivia, Peru, Ecuador, and Colombia) since the pre-Columbian times to the present. We will take a long-term, comparative, multi-disciplinary approach to a number of key issues in the history of Andean peoples: ethnicity, colonialism, gender, the relationship between native religions and Catholicism, the routines of resistance and open political contention to colonial and post-colonial regimes, and the highly contested process of nation-state building. Student will read and analyze some of the major historical and anthropological works in the field of Andean studies.

Sergio Serulnikov

HS 229 Modern Italy

Prerequisites: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

How to describe a country equally famed for the pope, the Mafia, and Sophia Loren? This course provides a survey of Italian history in the modern era, from the making of an Italian state in the 1800s through the 1990s. We will look at national politics, society and culture through historical texts, novels, and movies. We'll also use the case of Italy to examine questions about modern identity and nationhood in the western world. What's involved in making a nation? And what makes Italians distinctly Italian?

Dora Dumont

HS 300.35 The Study and Writing of History: Social Movements in Comparative Perspective

Prerequisites: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094; history major status.

This course offers an opportunity to have a first-hand experience in historical research and writing. We will use as platform an exciting field of study: social movements in urban and rural settings from the 17th century until now. Students will choose a case study on any form of collective protest: nationalist upheavals, social revolutions, student revolts, environmental groups, feminist movements, etc. Students will go through all the stages in producing a piece of historical research: state their topic, identify primary sources and bibliography, explain their main theses, elaborate a prospectus, and discuss in class a first draft of the essay.

Sergio Serulnikov

HS 304 Twentieth Century China

Prerequisites: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

The course will provide an overview of the political, social, and intellectual history of China in the 20th century, from 1900 to the present. This course will not be limited to narrative of important events, but will instead illuminate modern Chinese history through an examination of the crucial issues of reform and revolution, warlordism and central control, the place of women and ethnic groups, urban and rural society, nationalist and communist parties, and intellectual and peasant life. Recent developments such as market reforms, environmental problems, religious and civil freedom, and the discontent of China's minority nationalities will also be discussed.

Gray Tuttle

HS 311 African Slave Trade

Prerequisite: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

Cross listed with BK 213

Satisfies Cultural Diversity Core Requirement

From antiquity to the late nineteenth century Black Africans were sold as slaves to the far corners of the world. This course examines the origins of this nefarious trade with particular emphasis on the trans-Atlantic slave trade that began in the sixteenth century. Topics include the economic, political, and moral dimensions of the trade, including ways in which slaves were obtained in Africa, their transport to the New World, the campaign to end the trade in African slaves, and the trade's consequences in Europe, Africa, and the Americas.

David Northrup

HS 662 Land and Nationalism: From the Famine to the Whitaker Report of 1958.

This course will explore the Famine, agrarian movements and revolutionary politics; the Fenians, Parnell and the Land League; the United Irish League, Sinn Fein, the Republicans and Blueshirts in the interwar epoch; and the final collapse of the ‘agrarian radical tradition’ in the years after the war. Readings include: S. Bull’s Land and Politics; Samuel Clark’s Social Origins of the Land War; Cormac Ó Grada’s, Black ‘47 and Beyond: The Great Irish Famine in History; Mike Cronin’s The Blueshirts, George Boyce’s The Irish Revolution; Richard Dunphy’s The Making of Fianna Fail in Ireland 1923-48; Robert Savage’s Sean Lemass and Paul Bew’s Sean Lemass and the Making of Modern Ireland, Parnell; Conflict and Conciliation in Ireland, 1890-1910: Parnellites and Radical Agrarians; and John Redmond.

Paul Bew

HS 885 Colloquium: The Irish Migration to North America

The purpose of this colloquium is to introduce graduate students to the richness and complexity of the Irish-American past. More than seven million Irish men, women, and children have crossed the Atlantic for North America in the three centuries since 1700. Taking a transaction perspective, the seminar will begin with the recent revisionist controversy in Irish historiography, and concentrate throughout on questions of continuity and change in the movement from Ireland to the United States. In addition to examining the conditions in Ireland that led to mass emigration in four main periods (colonial, per-famine, famine, and post-famine), we will analyze in depth the principal themes in the history of the American Irish, including labor, race, gender, religion, politics, and nationalism. Rather than writing a Historiographical essay on a single aspect of the course, students will write a 2-3 page paper on each week’s readings. This will help promote focused participation, which is the key to success in a readings seminar.

Paul Bew

HS 663 Technology in the U.S., 1880-1990 (previously HS 530)

Prerequisite: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

This course studies the evolution of technological style in the United States from 1876, the nation’s hundredth birthday, to the present. "Technological Style" means technologies that become so successful in a society that society could not survive without them. "Successful" as used here, does not mean that a technical design does what it was intended to do. Electric toothpicks, for example, do what they are designated to do but U.S. society could manage without them and not suffer particularly grave consequences. But electric utilities, automobiles, electronic communications and information processing systems, etc., these we would not know how to do without.

Philosophy

PL 623 01 Knowing and Making in Modern Philosophy

In modern philosophy, truth and intelligibility come to be closely associated with human making. The nexus between the true and the made, some recent scholars have argued, is not only one facet of modernity among others, but its very essence. In this seminar, we will put this thesis to the test through our own reading of primary texts.

Requirements: participation in class discussion, a combination of oral presentations and short exegetical essays, final term paper.

Readings: Authors to be considered include Nicholas of Cusa, Bacon, Descartes, Hobbes, Leibniz, and Vico.

PO 312 Women in Politics

In this course we probe the role of women in American politics and the efforts that have been made in the past—and are being made today—on behalf of the collective political interests of women. Drawing on material from various disciplines in order to understand the shared experiences that might seem to give American women joint politically relevant interests, we investigate the different, and often contradictory, ways in which feminist and New

Right women define what is in their best interests as women and analyze the processes by which they organize to act in concert in pursuit of public policies that serve those interests. Finally, in the second half of the course we consider the politics of a number of public policies having a special impact on women—among them, employment discrimination and other workplace issues, equal opportunity in education, pornography, and surrogate motherhood. This course relies heavily on class discussion. Students are expected to read the assigned materials before class and to participate in class discussions.

Kay L. Schlozman

PO 329 American Political Ideas and Institutions

The course has two themes: basic ideas underlying American political institutions, and defenses and critiques of those institutions. The first theme is examined in some of the writings of Jefferson and Lincoln, and the second theme is examined, more extensively, in The Federalist and works by Walter Bagehot, Woodrow Wilson, Charles Beard, and a contemporary author.

Robert Scigliano

PO 341 American Political Thought

This course will examine the works of several American writers of our century who have had interesting things to say about politics in general, or about American politics in particular. Some of the authors studied will be philosophers, some will be essayists, and some will be novelists. The menu is subject to last minute changes, but some of the writers to be considered will be Henry Adams, Josiah Royce, Herbert Croly, Louis Hartz, and Hannah Arendt.

Dennis Hale

PO 354 Seminar: Citizens and Aliens

Robert Scigliano

PO 403 Rise and Rule of Islamic States

This course explores the nature of Islamic political systems from the Arab caliphates, Mongol Khanates and Turkic conquests to the problems and prospects faced by Moslem states today. The modern states to be examined include Turkey, Afghanistan, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan, Azerbaijan, Iran, as well as Moslem enclaves inside Russia such as Chechnya. Islamic philosophy, religion and culture will also be treated.

Kathleen Bailey

PO 407 (HS 149) Balkan Civilizations

A study of the non-western historical civilizations of the Balkan nations including Bulgaria, Romania, Greece, Serbia, and Turkey. The course consists of three parts: (1) the first part of the course will deal with early Slavic and Turkish history with an emphasis on differing languages, cultures and ethnicities. (2) The second part will cover the religious and intellectual aspects of the modern history of these non-western nations, especially the influences of Eastern Orthodox Christianity and Islam. (3) The third part of the course will analyze nation building and the current political problems, especially ethnic and religious conflicts in the Balkan states.

Kathleen Bailey

Raymond T. McNally

PO 408 Comparative Politics of the Middle East

An introduction to the cultures and politics of the Middle East. A general survey of historical material will provide the necessary background for understanding major cultural systems such as Islam and Judaism, and modern ideologies such as Arab nationalism, Pan-Arabism, Arab socialism, and Zionism. The course, then, will provide an overview of the politics and culture in Saudi Arabia, Egypt, Iran, Israel, and other countries. Various sections introduce students to the Islamic Revolution, the Palestinian nationhood, the sources of inter-Arab conflict and accommodation, and the impact of modernization on women in the Muslim world.

Anthony Tirado Chase

PO 421 The Politics of Northern Ireland, 1921-Present

This course seeks to trace the political development of Northern Ireland from its creation in 1921 to the present, examining in particular the political parties, organizations and movements that have shaped the political landscape of the six counties of historic Ulster that remain part of the United Kingdom. Northern Ireland was not created in a vacuum, however, and any attempt to understand its political evolution requires at minimum a brief examination of the conditions that led to partition in 1921. Indeed, the past is inextricably woven into the very fabric of life in Northern Ireland, and any attempt to understand the complex state of politics there today requires at least a basic study and discussion of the major political, economic, religious and social developments in Ireland from the Plantation of the early 1600s to the Home Rule Movement of the late 1800s. Nevertheless, the focus of this course will be on the "Troubles," 1968 - present. Course readings and discussions will be enhanced by guest speakers intimately involved in the modern politics of Northern Ireland.

In addition to a mid-term and a final examination, a 12-15 page research paper on a subject to be determined in consultation with the instructor is required.

Robert K. O'Neill

PO 432 Postcommunist Transitions

The course examines the multi-dimensional reforms underway transitions in Eastern Europe, Russia and the Former Soviet Union. The class will compare the strategies for establishing democracy, creating a market economy, and building nations.

Gerald Easter

PO 447 The Modern State

The class explores the rise of the modern state as the dominant form of political organization in world politics. It traces the development from pre-modern stateless societies, medieval states, and finally the modern nation-state. The class also examines the contemporary processes of globalization and their effect on the survival of the modern state.

Gerald Easter

PO 502 International Politics of the Global Environment

This course examines environmentalism in international politics and the dilemmas that environmental issues pose to international actors. The class begins with a review of the rise and history of environmentalism in international politics. The course then analyzes scientific and political-economic perspectives of environmental policymaking from both Malthusian and Cornucopian viewpoints. Case study examinations of specific environmental issues such as ozone depletion, fresh water scarcity, and global warming will be used to examine the following central questions: (1) What role does science play in the politics of the global environment and vice-versa? (2) How do environmental issues affect state sovereignty? (3) Are some international environmental problems easier to solve than others are and, if so, why? (4) What influences the effectiveness of international environmental institutions?

Christopher Kukk

PO 522 International Institutions

This course explores the structures, processes, and impacts of international institutions within the larger context of world politics. The course will first review the contending theoretical perspectives regarding the effect(s) that international institutions have on both interstate relations and political-economic discourse within states. The course will then examine a number of international institutions that are active in a diverse group of issue areas (e.g., security, political-economic, humanitarian, and environment) on both the global and regional levels. Central questions that will be addressed include: (1) What are international institutions and how are they created? (2) How do international institutions function and what roles do they perform in world politics? (3) Do international institutions play a positive, negative, or inconsequential role-from the perspective of states-in world politics? (4) What effect do international institutions have—if any—on the autonomy of individual states?

Christopher Kukk

PO 528 Human Rights and International Politics

A comprehensive survey of traditions, theories, and issues addressing the dynamic relation between the national power and morality. The fundamental questions examined inquire whether international relations is governed solely by considerations of national interest defined in terms of Realpolitik or some other morality should or could play a role in the conduct of the states. Theoretical analysis will provide necessary background to specific issues of peace, war, intervention, revolution, terrorism, human rights, distributive justice, disarmament, nuclear deterrence and environment. Just war, the priority of the national interest, relativist, consequentialist, universal deontological, and globalist viewpoints will be further explored.

PO 602 Capitalism and its Critics

Capitalism is arguably "the most fateful force in our modern life": deeply problematic, yet seemingly capable of overwhelming all its traditional and modern opponents. This course will examine theories about the origins of capitalism, as well as moral and political arguments for and against it by discussing the writings of thinkers such as Hobbes, Locke, Smith, Marx, Rousseau, Weber, Nietzsche, and Aristotle.

Nasser Behnegar

PO 720 American National Institutions

This seminar will examine the history, structure, operation, and interaction of Congress, the federal courts, the presidency, and the federal bureaucracy. It will expose students to a variety of approaches for studying political institutions. Students will be expected to write four book reviews of approximately 5 pages each and a take-home final of about 15 pages. Students who have taken previous graduate courses on the presidency, the courts, or Congress will be expected to do additional reading and to make presentations to the class.

Shep Melnick

PO 724 Advanced Topics: Environmental Management

This interdisciplinary course is designed to introduce students to a variety of concepts that are critical to understanding the reuse of contaminated, stigmatized or under-utilized properties (AKA Brownfields). Specifically, the course will provide both academic and hands-on exposure to environmental cleanups, financing BF projects and public participation.

Deborah Brown

PO 969 Economic Approaches to the Study of Politics

In recent years, the application of economic concepts to the study of politics has become increasingly popular in the political science profession. Yet, this is not an altogether new phenomenon, for one of the characteristics of modern political philosophy is the greater emphasis it places on economic motives. This course will examine the grounds and the utility of economic interpretations of politics by examining the writings of Thomas Hobbes, Adam Smith, Karl Marx, and a number of contemporary scholars.

Romance Languages

RL 860 "Il teatro di Luigi Pirandello"

Conducted in Italian

Replaces RL833 "Il Verismo Italiano"

"The course will focus on the theatrical and theoretical works of Luigi Pirandello. The following themes will be analyzed and discussed within the larger European context: the transfer from the narrative into dramatic form, the concept of dramatic art, the "uneasiness" of dramatic writing, the relation between the written word and its theatrical representation, the role of the actor and the audience in drama, the author-director-actor relation as well as major "existential" themes and concerns of texts analyzed.

Class format will include film viewing among which the plays discussed in class in the variety of their stagings, and the history of modern ideas on the theatre (Stanislawski, Craig, Meierchold, Kantor et al

Schedule of Courses—Spring Semester 1999

Explanation of Course Numbers

The Boston College Course Number consists of seven characters. The first two characters (alphabetic prefix, e.g., “MA”) indicate the department or program offering the course; the last two characters indicate the section number. The middle three characters indicate the level of the course. When listing courses the entire seven-character symbol must be used as well as the four digit INDEX number which appears to the left of the course. For example: 9999 MA333.01.

Meeting Days

The meeting days of each class are listed in this booklet as follows: M=Monday, T=Tuesday, W=Wednesday, Th=Thursday, F=Friday.

History

Although all modern history courses cover a common list of topics, they otherwise vary significantly. Students are very strongly advised to read the course description in the catalog or on the web pages before they enroll in a particular core course.

Final Exam Information

All courses have scheduled exam times determined by the starting time of the course. The listing above shows standard class meeting time exam assignments for undergraduate courses. In general, common exams are held at 4 pm. If a course does not fit exactly into a module, it assumes the module corresponding to the closest class meeting time. For example, a class meeting T TH 11 is assigned module 10 (T TH 10:30*). In situations where the non-standard time falls halfway between two modules, use the module for the later time. For example, a class meeting M W F 9:30 is assigned module 03 (M W F 10).

All graduate courses meeting once a week and undergraduate courses that start at 4:00 pm or later and meet once a week will have final exams on the first regular class day that occurs during the exam week. All graduate courses meeting more than once a week and undergraduate courses that start at 4:00 pm or later and meet more than once a week will have final exams on the class day that is earliest in the calendar week. For example, the final exam for a T TH 4pm class would be held Tuesday at 4pm. Exams will be held at the usual class meeting time and location unless otherwise posted on the exam schedule.

The meeting place for each exam, and exceptions or changes to the schedule will be posted outside the Office of the University Registrar, Lyons 101, one week prior to the exam period. Exam information is also available on U-View.

If there is a storm during the examination period, there is the expectation that exams will be held as scheduled. In the very rare instance that the exam schedule is delayed or postponed due to inclement weather or other emergency situations, the first available of the following days will be used: The Sunday during the exam week, the afternoon of the last exam day, and the day after the last exam day. If rescheduling is necessary, announcements will be made on WBZ, WRKO, and WBMX, and on the Boston College INFO line (552-4636). For graduate and professional students, announcements concerning final exams will be made on the same radio stations and on 552-INFO. Students are responsible for attending final exams at the scheduled times. In addition, students should consider possible exam rescheduling when making travel plans at the end of the semester.

Students are expected to take no more than two final exams in any one day. If a student has three exams scheduled in one day and one of these is a common exam, it is the responsibility of the instructor holding the common exam to give a make-up exam. If a student has three regularly scheduled exams (this can happen if the student is taking a course that meets at 4:00 pm or later), the instructor teaching the course outside of the standard time blocks (8 am-3 pm) should provide a make-up exam. In addition, if a student has a conflict between a common exam and a regularly scheduled late afternoon or evening course exam, the responsibility for a make-up lies with the instructor offering the common exam.

U-View via Modem

Modem Setup

- In your communications package, set your modem speed to the speed rated for your modem. The other settings remain the same: 8 bits, no parity, hardware handshake or flow control. Error correction should be turned off.

Logging On

- Use your communications software (Mac Terminal, ZTerm, Reflection, ProComm, YTerm, e.g.) to dial the modem pool number appropriate for your modem: 552 3020 for 2400 bps or LESS, 552 0999 for 4800 or GREATER. Long Distance dial: 1 617 552 3020 (or 1 617 552 0999). Use SPACES to separate the numbers!
- You should see CONNECT 2400/REL (speed varies by modem). You MAY have to press <RETURN> several times to establish a connection. Then you will see Servename for Quest/U-View is BCVMCMS.
- Press the <ENTER>or <RETURN> once or twice and you will see Enter Username>. Enter your BC username and press <RETURN>.
- You will see the prompt Type “C” Servename>. For U-View or Quest, type c then a space then BCVMCMS. NOTE: Typing 6100 and 8400 will NOT work.
- Press <RETURN>. On the blank line under Please enter a terminal id; prompt, type 1 for VT100, unless you know that your machine is otherwise.
- The BC screen will appear. Type your username on the Enter your Username, Eagle Number...: prompt and press <RETURN>. (You can use any of the listed options.)
- Tab once and type your PIN (Personal Identification Number) on the Enter Your PIN Number: prompt and press <RETURN>.
- You are now at the APPLICATION MENU screen of UIS. Select the application you wish to use (e.g., UIS, QUEST) and type its corresponding number on the SELECTION=> prompt and press <RETURN>. (For U-View, type 1 for the UIS system.)
- You are now at the System menu for UIS. Your options will vary. Type the number for U-View (or other service) on the ENTER SELECTION line and press <RETURN>.

Logging Off

- If you are using UIS mail, return to its main menu. Type L on the ENTER YOUR CHOICEÉ line and press <RETURN>. If you are using U-Buy, return to its main menu. Type L on the TYPE SELECTION HERE... line and press <RETURN>. If you are using U-View, return to its main menu. Type L on the TYPE SELECTION HERE... line and press <RETURN>.
- The APPLICATION MENU screen will appear. Type L on the SELECTION=> line and press <RETURN>.
- You are now at the BC screen. Type Y on the Enter “Y” to disconnect: prompt and press <RETURN>.
- At the Type “C” Servename> prompt, type log to disconnect. “C” option on U-View Plus (View Courses) can now access both fall and spring courses.

U-View Plus

Instructions are posted in the Student Learning and Support Center and in O’Neill 248.

U-Dial

- Call the Boston College Voice Response Unit: 617-552-8800 If you are calling outside the 617 area code, be sure to dial 1 + 617 before 552-8800.
- Enter your Eagle Number or your social security number upon request.
- Enter your 5-digit personal information number (PIN).
- Once you have accessed the voice response unit, the tape will list the main menu of transactions. (Review the selections below to be sure you understand the differences between transactions.) The system will then request that you choose a transaction by pressing one of the following:

TO ADD A COURSE: If you wish to add a course, press 1 when prompted to do so. Then follow the instructions at each prompt until the add transaction is completed.

TO DROP A COURSE: If you wish to drop a course, press 2 when prompted to do so. Then follow the instructions at each prompt until the drop transaction is completed.

TO ADD AND DROP A COURSE: If you wish to drop one course and then add one course, press 3 when prompted to do so and follow the instructions at each prompt until the drop/add transaction is completed. This transaction will not complete the drop unless you successfully add one course in its place; therefore, you shouldn’t worry when the drop transaction appears not to have gone through. This transaction should be used if you are changing the corequisite for a course (a lab or a discussion group).

TO CHECK THE STATUS OF A COURSE: If you wish to check quickly to see if a particular course is open, press 4 when prompted to do so. Then follow the instructions to check the status of the course.

TO LIST COURSES: Press 5 to hear the courses you are currently registered for or to confirm your transaction(s).

TO END CALL: Press 9 to disconnect from the Voice Response Unit. Be sure to listen carefully to instructions as you proceed with any transaction. If you make a mistake at any time, press * to start over.

Once you are familiar with the system, you can bypass the recorded message by entering the information requested at the beginning of the prompt.

Problems/Error Messages

You may encounter a problem or receive an error message while using the voice response unit.The most probable messages/problems and solutions are listed as follows.

Problem/MessageProbable Solution

1. Can’t access system	Use a touch-tone phone not a rotary phone, or try from another phone. Your phone may be malfunctioning.
2. System not available	You are calling outside the hours 8:00 A.M. to 11:00 P.M. seven days a week. Please call during U-Dial hours. OR the system is experiencing unscheduled downtime. Please call back in 15 minutes.
3. Busy Signal	The system’s incoming telephone lines are all in use. Try again later.
4. System does not answer	The Voice Response Unit is not functioning. Try again later.
5. Wrong ID	Check to make sure that you are inputting your Eagle or social security number correctly.
6. Wrong PIN	Check to make sure that you are inputting your PIN correctly.
7. Wrong index numbers	Check to make sure that you are inputting the correct 4-digit index number, not the course number (e.g., 9999 rather than EN999.09). Refer to the Schedule of Courses for index numbers.
8. Time Conflict message	Check the Schedule of Courses or the Course Status List available on U-View Plus . If there is still a problem, there may have been a time change. What is on the computer is correct since it is the most up-to-date.
9. The course you want is <ul style="list-style-type: none">• a sixth course• restricted to a major or school• closed or requires department	Students in A&S, CSOM, and SON who maintain a 3.00 GPA, may add a sixth course on-line (up to 20 credits) during the first week of classes. You must get the appropriate departmental approval to be allowed to override these restrictions.

For all these restrictions, see the department. If they issue an override, obtain the necessary stamp(s) and/or signature(s) and bring the approved form to Lyons 101 by 4:30 P.M. on January 25.

If the above does not resolve your problem, or if you have a difficult problem, call 617-552-3300 during business hours, Monday-Friday 8:45 A.M. to 4:45 P.M.

TN3270 on the IBM

TN3270 is a software tool that allows your networked IBM to establish ‘terminal sessions’ with IBM mainframe computers such as the Boston College UIS System or the QUEST system in order to access U-View or Quest.

Starting TN3270

Double-click on the TN3270 icon. (Figure 1) It is located in the PC/TCP Applications window located in your Program Manager.

Logging on to UIS

- Once you have double-clicked on the TN3270 icon, you will see the Open dialog. (Figure 2) If this is your first time using this program, the Sessions Available: box will be blank.
- NOTE: The programs TNAV and TN3270 use the same dialogs, so if you save a session in TNAV and then open TN3270, you will see it in the Sessions Available box as well.
- Click on the Cancel button. You will now see a blank screen. Choose New... from the Session menu at the top of your screen.
- You will now see the New dialog. (Figure 3) Type bcvmcmts.bc.edu in the Host Name or IP Address: box and click on the Connect button.
- You will see a message, Trying to connect to bcvmcmts.bc.edu then Entering 3270 mode in the lower left corner of your screen. The BC screen will now appear. (Figure 4) Follow the on-screen instructions.

If you do not know your username, consult your Communications Directory.

If you have forgotten your PIN (Personal Identification Number), you must go to the HELP Center in person or the O’Neill Computing Facility and present your valid Boston College ID. An authorized person will then look it up.

Saving a Session

(“shortcuts” to connect to a host)

Boston College’s University Information System (UIS) is being used for this example. You can save any other session to any other host in the same way.

- Open a connection to UIS or any other Host computer.
- Once you are through, log out of UIS as you normally do. Choose Close from the Session menu.
- You will now see the TN3270 dialog asking you if you want to save this session. Click on Yes. (Figure 5)
- You will now see the Save As dialog box. (Figure 6) Type UIS or bcvmcmts (matter of preference) in the New Session Name box. Click on the Save button.

Opening an existing session

(using “shortcuts”)

- Double-click on the TN3270 icon if you are not logged in, or choose Open from the Session menu if TN3270 is already open. You must close a current session to open a new one.
- You will now see the Open dialog box. You should see UIS or bcvmcmts (depending on what you named it) in the Sessions Available: box.
- Click on the name to highlight and click on the Connect button. You should now see the BC screen.

Quitting TN 3270

- Log out of whatever system you are currently connected to.
- Choose Close from the Session menu.
- Choose Exit from the File menu. You will be asked if you want to save the session. (Figure 5) If you have already saved a session document for UIS, or any other Host computer, click No.

Telnet Users

- Choose New... from the Session menu at the top of your screen.
- You will now see the New dialog. Type bcvmcmts.bc.edu in the Host Name or IP Address: box and click on the Connect button.

TN3270 on the Macintosh

TN3270 is a software tool that allows your networked Macintosh to establish ‘terminal sessions’ with IBM mainframe computers such as Boston College, UIS or QUEST systems in order to access U-View or Quest.

Starting TN3270

- Double-click on the TN3270 icon. (Figure 1)

Logging on to UIS

- Choose Open Connection from the File menu. (Figure 2)
- Type BCVMCMS.BC.EDU in the Session name box and click on the OK - button.(Figure 3)
- The UIS Login screen will appear. (Figure 4) Type your username and the <TAB> key. If you do not know your username, consult your Communications Directory. (Your username is on the last line of your personal information, before the colon. Ex.: USERJOE:USERJOE@HERMES.BC.EDU; USERJOE is the username.)
- Type your Personal Identification Number at the PIN: prompt and press <RETURN/ENTER>.

If you have forgotten your PIN, you must go to the HELP Center, Gasson 12, or the O’Neill Computing Facility in person and present your valid Boston College ID. An authorized person will then look it up.

- You are now at the main screen of B.C.’s UIS system.

Shortcut to UIS

- If you mainly log on to BC’s UIS System, you can automatically advance to the login screen and skip the Open Connection and Session name boxes.
- Within the TN3270 folder, you will see two documents: “UIS System/Color” and ‘UIS System/B&W’. (Figures 5 & 6) If you double-click on either of these documents, you will immediately advance to the Username: prompt. (Figure 4)
- If you have a color monitor, double-click on the ‘UIS System/Color’ icon. If you have a black and white (or ‘greytone’) monitor double-click on the ‘UIS System/B&W’ icon.

Telnet Users

- To make a connection choose Open Session from the File menu. Type BCVMCMS.BC.EDU as the Session name.
- Click ok
